

Online Contributions

to your Group RRSP, TFSA & RESP

Contribute to your group plan with online banking - it's fast, easy and secure.

You can now use online banking to make contributions from your bank account to your Group RRSP (personal or spousal), Group Tax-Free Savings Account and your Group RESP.

What to do

1. Sign in to your personal banking website.
2. Search for "Canada Life" or "Great-West" in the bill payment section and choose the plan that applies to you:
  - GROUP RRSP
  - SPOUSAL GROUP RRSP
  - GROUP TFSA
  - GROUP RESP
3. Enter the following information to create the account number:
  - Your plan/policy number (5 digits) - ex: 12345
  - Your certificate number – ex: 000056789
(you will find this 9 digit number on your last statement or the welcome email when you first enrolled).

Sample Account Number

GREAT-WEST GROUP RRSP – 12345000056789

plan/policy number      certificate number

If you're contributing to a personal RRSP, select the GREAT-WEST GROUP RRSP and enter your plan/policy number and certificate number (without spaces).

Notes:

- RRSPs: When you make a personal RRSP contribution using the payee, GREAT-WEST GROUP RRSP, any instructions on file to direct a portion of your contributions to a spousal RRSP will apply. If you'd like to direct 100 per cent of your contributions to a spousal RRSP, add GREAT-WEST SPOUSAL GROUP RRSP as the payee and use the spousal certificate number.
- RESPs: Currently, online contribution is the only option for the Group RESP. Search for Canada Life in the bill payment section of your online banking, then select Group RESP.
